Liability

Christopher K. Morgan & Artists (CKM&A) is committed to conducting all programs in a safe manner and holds the safety of participants in the highest regard. CKM&A continually strives to reduce risk and insists that all participants follow safety rules and instructions that are designed to protect their safety. However, students and parents/guardians of minors must recognize that there is an inherent risk of injury when choosing to participate in physical activities.

You are solely responsible for determining if you (or your minor child/ward) is physically fit and/or skilled for any classes or activities. It is always advisable, especially if the participant is pregnant, disabled in any way, or has recently suffered an illness, injury or impairment, to consult a physician before undertaking any physical activity. Teachers should be made aware of any physical problem that would affect a student's ability to take class.

Programs are intended to challenge and engage the physical, mental and emotional resources of each participant. Despite careful and proper preparation, instruction, medical advice, conditioning and equipment, there is still a risk of serious injury when participating in any physical activity/program.

In this regard, it must be recognized that Christopher K. Morgan & Artists is NOT responsible for any injury incurred during one of our workshops. CKM&A is also not responsible for any lost or stolen items left in the facility.
